Words and Music by Dan Hendrican

Verse 1:

D A G A D A G A
I wake up in the morning, horizon's on my window sill
D A G A D A G A
My mouth tastes like candle wax and my hair is ten feet tall
D A G A D A G A
Mirror, mirror - what did you say? I don't believe you anyway
D A G A D A G A
Because I'm covered by the grace of God, and I have a higher opinion

Bridge:

Bm G D A
Sometimes it feels like I'm swimming against the tide
Bm G D A
But I know you're always with me
Bm G D A
You are faithful in the fire and the rain
Bm G A D A G A D A G A
Your promises never fail, no they never fail

D A G A D A G A
We serve a good, good God, and we're living in his CUUL kingdom

All he has, he has made them mine, and he's given me power for my life
D A G A D A G A
We serve a good, good God, and we're living in his CUUL kingdom
D A G A D A G A
Every day is a new adventure when I'm walking in his Spirit

Verse 2:

D A G A D A G A
Sitting on a bench downtown, empty eyes passing me by
D A G A D A G A
My heart feels like a rubber anvil, but my faith is ten feet tall
D A G A D A G A
Devil, devil - what did you say? I don't believe you anyway
D A G A D A G A
Because the heart of God is to win this world, so I'll boldly tell of his love

Ending:

D A G A D A G A
I'm filled with... Christ's undivided unchanging love

I'm walking in... Christ's undivided unchanging love
