

Be By My Side

Words and Music By Darrell Aikens

Verse 1:

A                                  D                  A
Lord loose my feet so I may dance
                                                A            D            A
Lord loose my eyes so I may see
                E D                                  A
Your Spirit surrounding me

Verse 2:

                                A                  D                  A
Lord come and be - be by my side
                                A                  D                  A
Come and fill my rivers dry
                E D                                  A
Overflow my banks tonight

Chorus:

                E                                  D                                  A
I want to see in the Spirit your oil flowing over me
                E                                  D                                  A
So I may feel a release to be set free
E                                  D                                  A
In your presence is where I want to be
