

Can It Be

Words and Music By Peter Hill

Verse 1:

G Bm A D
As a father holds his child's hand, so You reach out to me
Em Bm/F# A D
And the love that's in Your eyes goes to my deepest need
G Bm A D
For the hand that longs to cling to mine was once in agony
Em Bm/F# A D
As blood poured forth from flesh and bones between a nail and a tree

Chorus:

A/C# D<sup>2</sup> E D<sup>2</sup>
Can it be that You love me right where I am
A/C# D<sup>2</sup> B E<sup>sus</sup> E
But I see You shaping me with the Potter's hand
A/C# D<sup>2</sup> E D<sup>2</sup>
Can it be You'll be with me if I fall or stand
Em Bm A D
I'm in awe of You, I'm in awe of You
Em Bm A D
Oh, I'm in awe of You, I'm in awe of You

Verse 2:

G Bm A D
As a potter looks at formless clay, there's really nothing to be seen
Em Bm/F# A D
But the sparkle in his eye says that he sees the beauty it can be
G Bm A D
You reach out Your hand into my life, You're gently shaping me
Em Bm/F# A D
And You won't give up when I give in, because You see a masterpiece